I don't understand why Microsoft is not even getting a slap on its wrist for it's years of illegal monopoly maintaince. The proposed settlement is a complete joke. Unless it is your strategy to come up with a settlement so rediculous the judge has to throw it out, you all should be investigated for bribery and contempt of court. Your technical consultants were either ignored, complete idiots, or also on the take.

Sincerly,
An outraged U.S. citizen
